DCM Andrew Schofer joined NHSRC & NIH Officials to inaugurate entomology Lab

DCM Andrew Schofer joined NHSRC and NIH officials to inaugurate an entomology lab established with CDC financial support. The inaugurating 2022 flooding showed the importance of entomology lab which empowers Pakistan's ability to track and respond to disease outbreaks. The U.S. wants to help Pakistan during its flood recovery, and we will continue to build our health and science partnership through the U.S.-Pakistan Green Alliance framework.
